

How to Enter the Anonymoose Family colouring Contest

Celebrating 40 Safe and Colourful Years in Our Community!

Celebrate 40 years of safety and community spirit by colouring the Anonymoose family! This special colouring contest is all about highlighting Crime Stoppers' milestone anniversary and the ongoing work to keep our community safe. Over the past 40 years, Crime Stoppers has played a key role in making our town a safer, brighter place by helping solve crimes through anonymous tips. Like a colourful masterpiece, these years have been full of positive change, teamwork, and the vibrant efforts of everyone involved. Your creativity can help show just how "colourful" these 40 years have been!

How to Participate:

1. Download & Print Your Colouring Sheet:

You can find your official Anonymoose Family colouring sheet at www.saultcrimestoppers.com. The page features a family of moose, ready for you to add your splash of colour!

2. Colour Your Sheet:

Use crayons, markers, or coloured pencils to add your personal touch to the Anonymoose family. Feel free to use any colours you like! Imagine a colourful community where everyone is safe and happy—how would you paint it?

3. Submit Your Entry:

Drop off or mail your finished artwork! Crime Stoppers is located inside the Sault Ste. Marie Police Services building located at 580 Second Line East and will accept drop offs, mail, or alternatively, you may wish to send an image electronically to our email address info@saultcrimestoppers.com.

Why "colourful 40 Years"?

When we say "colourful," we mean the last 40 years have been full of positive and dynamic changes in our community—just like a colourful painting. Crime Stoppers has made a difference by helping keep our town safe with anonymous tips, and it's been a rewarding and vibrant journey for everyone involved. Through your artwork, you're helping to celebrate the amazing work of keeping our community safe!
