

First Presbyterian Church of Taos

215 Paseo del Pueblo Norte

invites you to an

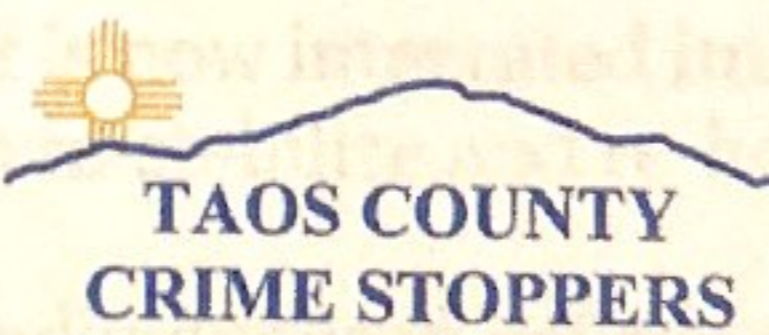

ALTERNATIVE GIFT FAIR

Sunday, December 8th

12:00 Noon until 2:00 PM

Do your holiday shopping & support local 501(c)3 non-profits by making gift donations* in honor of loved ones.

Each donation will be acknowledged with a greeting card & donation certificate representing your gift*

Making Taos County Safer One Anonymous Tip at a Time

DREAM TREE PROJECT

First Presbyterian Church of Taos
2024 ALTERNATIVE GIFT FAIR

For the needy will not always be forgotten, nor the hope of the poor perish forever. —Psalm 9:18 (NRSV)

Thank you for choosing to support the following local 501(c)3 organizations.
Gift donations should be made directly to your charities of choice.

Enos Garcia Elementary School and Nurture Center strives to provide quality educational opportunities while supporting and advocating for children and families, many of whom are grandparents parenting their grandchildren.

Shared Table, in partnership with El Pueblito United Methodist Church distributes food, basic healthcare items and some school supplies on the 2nd and 4th Wednesdays, 9:00-11:30 at El Pueblo UMC and 1:30-3:00 at Talpa Community Center.

Veterans Off-Grid respectfully offers military Veterans a place to heal holistically in a sustaining, eco-friendly, off-grid community, so they may reintegrate with society. (Try some of their delicious, farm-to-table micro greens! Donations welcomed)

HEART of Taos: Hope, Empowerment, Advocacy, Respect and Trust strives to provide emergency housing and support to families facing homelessness.

Dream Tree Project, serving youth throughout Northern New Mexico provides emergency shelter, a transitional home and resources for teens who do not have a safe place to stay.

Taos NEST (Navigating Emergency Support Together) is a Dream Tree Project-led program assisting community members in accessing emergency shelter and support services.

[Looking for the Taos Men's Shelter? It is now integrated into Taos NEST to better support its guests with case management to re-stabilize and re-house.]

Bridges for Education provides free, individualized college counseling and support programs for students of all ages, helping with applications, financial aid, and guidance in choosing the best colleges for their needs and academic, career and life goals.

Taos Search and Rescue is a group of volunteers giving time, skills and resources to assist people lost or injured in the New Mexico wilderness and beyond.

Taos County Crime Stoppers is the public, police and private sector working together for a safer Taos County by offering anonymous methods for the public to report information regarding unsolved crimes and fugitives.